

SUMMER

By Caryn & Johan Naude

Tuesday 14th December 2004 – Conservatory and Summerhouse

Blessed is everyone who fears, reveres and worships the Lord; who walks in His ways and lives according to His commandments ... Psalm 128

July 2002 – we knew from the first time we saw each other that we were meant to be. I discovered that Johan's mother and my grandmother share birthdays and Johan's father and my grandfather share birthdays. Isn't that quite amazing? Within a year we planned to marryuntil my dad found out, that was the end of that idea for at least another year.

In December 2003 Johan had to stay at home and work while I joined my family for 2 weeks on a farm. I discovered to my dismay that there was no cell phone signal for about a 30km radius. All I could find on which to write the farm's telephone number was a simple piece of voile. I wrote "Caryn @ farm" and the farm's landline number, and gave Johan the piece of cloth.

July came again 2 years later, 2004, and Johan asked me to choose a restaurant for dinner. We went to a little Portuguese restaurant and sat in a romantic candle lit corner. Johan proposed. I said "Yes, of course I'll marry you!" and started crying. He said I mustn't cry and said he had a tissue for me. He gave me, the piece of cloth I had written the farm's number on. Wrapped in the cloth was the most beautiful, sparkling ring I had ever seen! I put the ring on my finger and was the happiest woman in the whole world! I was sitting next to the man of my dreams – the husband I had been praying for!
